PREFACE.

In gathering the materials for the following record, I cheerfully acknowledge my indebtedness to the late Rev. D. Z. Dantzler, of the South Carolina Conference; Dr. M. J. D. Dantzler, of Ellore, S. C.; Mr. L. N. Dantzler, of Moss Point, Miss., and many others who kindly responded by letter and otherwise, to my inquiries. A few friends, of whom I made requests, failed to respond, and hence it will be seen that the record is incomplete at some points. Perhaps there are also some inaccuracies of statement, and in spelling of names, owing to illegible chirography, for which I beg the indulgence of those who may be thus aggrieved. The record has cost the outlay of some labor and means, but it has also been a labor of pleasure, and I trust many will enjoy a corresponding pleasure in tracing their relationship to each other by blood and marriage ties.

Orangeburg, S. C.

Explanatory Note.

This record is made in three divisions and eighteen sub-divisions or chapters.

A division comprises the name and record of a member of the first generation and of the names and records of his descendants through the successive generations. Illustration: Harry Dantzler had three sons—Jacob, Daniel and Henry. Jacob and his descendants constitute division one; Daniel and his descendants, division two, and Henry and his descendants, division three.

Each sub-division or chapter consists of the records of the different generations, each chapter beginning with the name of a member of the second generation. The table of contents refers to the page on which each chapter begins.

ERRATA.

On page 7, Generation six, third paragraph, second line, after the word "Children" read "Angie" instead of "Annie".

On page 11, Chapter II, Generation four, fifth paragraph, third line, after the word "yellow" read "fever".

On page 23, sixth line from bottom, read "Samuel" Felder instead of "William" Felder.

On page 22, Chapter IV, Generation four, to paragraph ten add "Rev. J. Sylvanus".

A GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF
THE DANTZLER FAMILY.

HARRY DANTZLER.

About the year 1739 Harry Dantzler emigrated from Germany to South Carolina, and settled in Orangeburg County. He brought with him three sons—Jacob, Daniel and Henry—their ages not known. It is presumed that they were boys. Harry Dantzler's wife is supposed to have died before he left Germany. In the following record we have assumed that these three brothers—Jacob, Daniel and Henry, constitute the first American generation of Dantzlors.

About the year 1732 two brothers and one sister—Casper Strobel, Daniel Strobel and Elizabeth Strobel, emigrated from Germany to South Carolina. There is no known record of their father and mother, or of their ages. It is presumed that they were quite young. Casper settled in Charleston, and Daniel in Colleton county. Their sister, Elizabeth Strobel, married Mr. ——— Carn, probably about the year 1740-5. Their children were Frederick, Lewis, Daniel, Barbara and Ann.

DESCENDANTS OF HARRY DANTZLER.

DIVISION ONE.
